The 2021-2022 school year has once again been a year of innovation, updates, and success for the UNG Honors Program. We returned to the classroom and campus with a renewed vigor and eagerness that translated into an es bed i 4GEEMFALE

From our welcome picnics to our newly redeveloped Honors 1000 course and continuing student accolades, Honors students have again demonstrated that no matter the change or modality, our students are poised for success. Read on to learn more about what Honors students and alumni have been up to this year.

As always, be well and keep in touch!

Honors student Anna Moller, a junior Psychology major from Copenhagen, Denmark, was elected to serve as only the second president of UNG's consolidated student government, serving students from all campuses. We sat down with Anna to ask her about the presidency, her plans, and how Honors has helped shape her trajectory:
